

LIMITLESS

Haven't you once been asking yourself:

Which paths should I tread?

How far may I get?

Of what to forget?

Of what to take instead?

Why being sad

unlike being glad?

Where to move

and whom to prove?

Questions of questions clustering around,
looking for answers to be found!

Demanding you to solve
and with them to evolve!

But just that you know,

some are to grow,

some to reflect,

many to neglect,

others seem small,

others rather tall,

while others offer keys,

others press you to your knees.

But don't get confused,
start being amused,
about what you're doing,
despite others are booing.

And nevertheless
try to live on limitless!
