

Humans and their Similarities

Humans of different races with different skin color and faces.
Humans of younger or older ages with different amounts of wages.

Humans from near or far,
it's glorious how similar we really are.

We all get born little,
as a believer or an infidel.
We all start from nothing,
looking to, one day, achieve something.
We all have to learn more or less,
sometimes it's kind of a mess.
We all want to be better than each other,
no matter if it's our own brother.
We all want to prove more to ourselves,
than to anybody else,
that we are extraordinary,
even if it's imaginary.

But the more we grow,
the more we have to show,
what capabilities we possess
and if they lead to defeats or success.
Opportunities are what we're looking for and what we're hoping for more and more.
Therefore we do everything, we're able to and everything we can put us into.

We even resemble in our own attitudes at home or in different types of institutes.
The way, we think, the nature should be treated,
if it should be conserved or be defeated.

The way, we treat criminals,
sometimes like mean animals.

The way, we embrace,
the self-proclaimed value of the human race.
Even how we treat ourselves,
much like anybody else.

In fact,
This list could go on and on,
and we definitely wouldn't be done.

Because,
humans resemble in more,
than they're dreaming for.

Whether in color or race,
or in their needs of space.
Humans are more or less alike,
but certainly not unlike.
